Information Automatically Collected From The Customer's Computer

When the Customer visits I-Online or IOJ/ICJ website, IOJ/ICJ web server automatically records the Customer's IP address. This IP address is not linked to any of the Customer's personal information. IOJ/ICJ use IP addresses to help IOJ/ICJ administer the website and to collect demographic information for aggregation purposes.

Generally IOJ/ICJ do not link Customer's IP address to anything that enables identification of a Customer's identity and location possible unless it is required by law and regulation.

IOJ/ICJ may also gather other non-personal information (from which IOJ/ICJ cannot identify the Customer) such as the type of the Customer's internet browser which Isetan will use to provide the Customer with a more effective service.

IOJ/ICJ Use of Cookies and Other Information Gathering Technologies

IOJ/ICJ may store some information (commonly known as a “cookie”) on the Customer’s computer. Cookies are pieces of information that a website transfers to the Customer’s hard drive to store and sometimes track information about the Customer. Cookies are specific to the server that created them and cannot be accessed by other servers, which means that they cannot be used to track the Customer’s movements around the web.

Passwords and credit card numbers are not stored in cookies. A cookie helps the Customer get the best out of the website and helps IOJ/ICJ to provide the Customer with a more customized service. IOJ/ICJ use cookies so that the Customer does not have to re-enter the Customer’s details each time the Customer visits the website and to track how the website is used and to improve and update IOJ/ICJ content.

Notwithstanding the above, the Customer can block or erase cookies from the Customer’s computer if the Customer wants to by referring to the documentation contained in the Customer’s browser.

How (IOJ)/ (ICJ) Protects the Customer’s Information

IOJ/ICJ has implemented technology and policies to safeguard the Customer’s privacy from unauthorized access and improper use. Isetan uses secure server software to encrypt any financial information the Customer needs to input before it is sent to IOJ/ICJ

IOJ/ICJ also keeps the Customer’s information confidential. The internal procedures of IOJ/ICJ cover the storage, access, and disclosure of the Customer’s information, including, but not limited to limiting access to the Customer’s information to those employees or agents who IOJ/ICJ believes have reasonable need to use the information to provide products and/or services to the Customer, or to perform their jobs.

Sale Of Business

If this business is sold or integrated with another business, the Customer’s details may be disclosed to IOJ/ICJ advisers and any prospective purchasers and their advisers and will be passed on to the new owners of the business.

Updating of the Customer’s Details

If there is any change in the information that the Customer has provided to Isetan, for example if the Customer changed e-mail address, names or payment details or if the Customer wishes to cancel the registration, please let us know the correct details by informing us personally via store walk-in, telephone calls or emails.

Links To Other Websites

IOJ/ICJ cannot be responsible for the privacy policies and practices of other sites if the Customer accesses those using links from the website and recommend that the Customer check the policy of each site the Customer visits and contact its owner or operator if the Customer has concerns or questions.

In addition, if the Customer linked to this website from a third-party site, IOJ/ICJ cannot be responsible for the privacy policies and practices of the owners or operators of that third-party site and recommend that the Customer check the policy of that third party site and contact its owner or operator if the Customer has any concerns or questions.

Privacy Policy Updates

Please note that IOJ/ICJ may update this privacy Notice from time to time. If IOJ/ICJ changes its privacy policy, IOJ/ICJ will post the changes on this page, and may place notices on other pages of the website, so that the Customer may be aware of the information Isetan collect and how Isetan use it at all times. Continued use of the service will signify that the Customer agree to any such changes.
